PBS Module 6
Redesigning Environmental Systems

Use this Curriculum Planning Tool to assist you in planning the best use of an Online Academy module in your courses. The Planning Tool contains four pages. Page one (below) shows the module Table of Contents. Page two provides an overview of the module's contents, including the (1) goals of the module, (2) discussion questions relevant to the module, (3) the topic title of each lesson in the module, and (4) a list of the glossary words used in the module. Page three is a course integration plan form that allows you to record where the module could fit into the courses you teach. Page four contains a breakdown of all the student tasks included in the module. There is also space on page four for you to plan where each task may fit into your course plan.

Content Overview

PBS Module 6: Redesigning Environmental Systems

This module introduces positive behavioral support strategies that can be used at a school-wide and classroom level. In addition to teachers, other school personnel may be interested in the information contained within this lesson since it deals with larger school-wide issues and staff development. The information available within this lesson will be appropriate for educational systems supporting students of all ages, with and without disabilities.

Goals:

1. Describe how positive behavioral support is implemented at a systems level.
2. Describe the type of environment that promotes effective classroom management, staff development, and school-wide discipline.
3. Identify the key issues and specific classroom management strategies used to promote a learning environment.
4. Explain why it is important to consider staff development when looking for a teaching position in a new school.
5. Describe the critical features of school-wide discipline.

Discussion Questions:

1. How is positive behavioral support implemented at a systems level?
2. What type of environment promotes effective classroom management, staff development, and school-wide discipline?
3. What are key issues and specific classroom management strategies used to promote a learning environment?
4. Why is it important to consider staff development when looking for a teaching position in a new school?
5. What are the critical features of school-wide discipline?

Lesson Topics:

1. Classroom Management Strategies
2. Staff Development
3. School-Wide Discipline
